PROJECTS (visit wmcbride.co to view portfolio)

Flix With Friends (in progress)

A full stack application that allows you to rate movies you have seen, add movies to your wish list, and then compare with friends. The mission of the app is to cut down on the time it takes to pick a movie when you're sitting down with friends and give you the best choice based on your tastes. I am building this app using Ember, Rails and Bootstrap as my main technologies.

Golf Handicap Calculator +

This was my first full stack app build and it uses a Rails API to manage the client communication with the PostgreSQL databases. With GHC+, you can record your rounds of golf and track your handicap over time.

Stranger Tic Tac Toe

A basic tic tac toe game with an added theme. This game design was inspired by the show Stranger Things, and uses jQuery, CSS for animation and styling.

Sweatersforturtles.com

A quirky E-commerce site built with a team using Node.js and MongoDB.
